

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The safety and security of UPS customers, business partners and employees is of utmost concern.

As a result, UPS is enhancing its security measures and will continue to implement additional security precautions as necessary.

UPS requires customers originating shipments to present a valid government-issued photo ID when shipping packages from this location.

